Hi Marianne-

As of now, I am on call for a Superior Court case in Springfield on Monday and on call for District Court cases in Springfield and Holyoke on Tuesday. Previously the ADA for the Superior Court case thinks that "it is unlikely to go that day", so I have emailed her again and asked if I would be okay to make myself available to you. I will let you know when I hear back from her. Also, since my cases on Tuesday are only district cases, your case would have priority if necessary.

Back on April 5th you emailed me about a different case (Comm. v. [REDACTED] with the numbers # [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. Looking at the files, it appears that Jermaine Smith is only listed as a defendant on one of the submissions (# [REDACTED]), so am I correct to assume that it is only the one lab number? (I apologize for asking if it is only the lab number you provided, but in the past some ADA's have neglected to list all the numbers and I just want to make sure) Thanks.

Hi Sonja.

The case of Commonwealth v. [REDACTED] (Lab [REDACTED]) is being called in for trial. Are you available to testify either next Monday or Tuesday? From the cert, it appears that you did the analysis of the drugs on 12/24/09.

Thank you! I apologize for the late notice, we did not expect that this was going to be a trial.
